

Community Film Screening

I'm Not Racist...Am I?

We invite you to attend a free film screening on Thursday, January 5 from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

High Meadows School Community Center

This feature documentary follows a diverse group of teens through a yearlong exploration to get at the heart of racism. Through some tense and painful moments, we see how these difficult conversations affect their relationships with friends and parents, and ultimately challenge them to look deep within themselves. By the end of their time together, we'll see these remarkable young people develop bonds, a stronger resolve and a bigger, more significant definition of racism than any of us ever imagined.

A post-screening discussion facilitated by a member of the filmmaking team will allow for viewers to engage actively with the subject matter and with one another through respectful dialogues.

“Regardless of one’s background, the topic of race is one of the most hard-to-talk about issues that we all live with today. I’m Not Racist...Am I? creates a space to have the discussions that hurt; it also has the power to spark the conversations that can heal.”

Yolanda Sealey-Ruiz
Assistant Professor, Teachers College, Columbia University

VISIT www.highmeadowscenter.org to register for this FREE event today!